Any Saturday or Sunday Sessions or Weekday Appointments beginning after 5pm	$200
Extended therapy sessions, up to 90 minutes	$300
Personality and Psychological testing	Varies

IMPORTANT: Want to reduce your costs? Your share of all the above costs for psychological services are likely to be REDUCED considerably by your health insurance benefits. For example, many of our clients pay less than $30 per session as their "co-payment" or "co-insurance" after insurance, and after their annual deductible amount has been met. We will be happy to determine this information for you ahead of time- just send or give us a copy of both sides (ENLARGED) of your insurance ID card (s).

"A good psychologist doesn't tell people how to live – instead, he or she must ask people how they want to live, and then help them get there."
